MEASURES TO DEAL WITH COVID-19 AND IMPACT ON THE MEETING

INVESTOR MEETINGS USING VIRTUAL TECHNOLOGY

Schedule 1 to the Treasury Laws Amendment (2021 Measures No.1) Act commenced on 14 August 2021.

Broadly, the changes in Schedule 1 enable companies to use technology to meet regulatory requirements under the Corporations Act around convening meetings, distributing meeting related materials and signing/executing documents. These changes are still temporary and will last until 31 March 2022.

These measures are designed to facilitate the holding of meetings (including AGMs) via virtual technology.

Among other things, they:

- deem persons participating via virtual technology to be present at the meeting
- confirm virtual technology may be used to provide persons a reasonable opportunity to speak at the meeting
- allow notices of meeting, and other information regarding a meeting, to be provided by including it in an electronic communication or providing details of an online location where it can be viewed and downloaded.

ASIC considers that virtual technology is a valuable tool for addressing the challenges of COVID-19 and to ensure continued investor engagement in meetings. While restrictions on movement and large gatherings remain in place, ASIC strongly encourages companies and responsible entities to hold either:

- 'virtual' meetings (a meeting where all members participate via online facilities)
- where circumstances permit, 'hybrid' meetings (a small physical meeting linked with online facilities that allow remote participation).

WELLARD WILL HOLD A VIRTUAL ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The Company and the Board remain acutely aware of the current circumstances resulting from COVID-19 and the impact it is having, and is likely to continue to have, on physical meetings. As a result, it is not currently prudent for us to plan to physically host Shareholders and members of the public at the upcoming AGM.

The Board has made the decision that it will be holding a virtual AGM, with a very limited number of persons, such as the Chair and some senior executives, managing the meeting via technology from the Company's head office.

Instead, Wellard will stream the Meeting via a live webcast allowing Shareholders to participate in the Meeting, including discussion, questions, and voting.

Wellard's non-Western Australian and internationally based Directors will not attend the physical meeting in the current circumstances and will also be participating at the Meeting via webcast and online platform. Shareholders will not be admitted to the physical Meeting on 26 November 2021.

Wellard's 2020 AGM, conducted in this manner, was inclusive and successful. We welcomed the participation of a greater number of shareholders than attended in-person at our AGMs in 2018 and 2019. In addition, non-West-Australian based shareholders were able to participate remotely for the first time.

SHAREHOLDER PARTICIPATION

The Company strongly encourages all Shareholders to participate in the Meeting by:

- a) reading this Notice carefully;
- b) voting by proxy following the instructions set out in this Notice and returning your completed Proxy Form to the Company no later than 2.00pm (WST) on 24 November 2021.
- c) Registering online to identify yourself and to indicate your participation, and then
- d) Attending the Meeting via webcast.

Shareholders entitled to vote on resolutions put at the meeting will have the opportunity to consider responses to questions and debate before doing so. This will apply even where it is also possible to vote prior to the meeting via proxy or through direct voting. Note that the Company encourages proxy voting, and encourages you to appoint the Chairman as your proxy.

ATTENDING THE MEETING VIA THE WEBCAST

A live webcast will be conducted allowing Shareholders to register their attendance, hear and view the Meeting on their computer or smart device, and ask questions.

Shareholders who wish to participate via the webcast must pre-register at least 24 hours prior to the meeting at <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/2693394888081113615>. Please note you will be emailed further details on how to join the webcast following registration.

CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVES

If you intend participating as a Corporate Representative of one or more registered shareholders, please see instructions on page 11 (VOTING BY CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVES). Whether you intend to vote by proxy or during the meeting, each eligible shareholding will need to register and vote by way of separate registration. The Company notes that it will simplify the voting process if shareholders lodge online proxies prior to the Meeting.

ASKING QUESTIONS

Shareholders will be able to ask questions during the Meeting via:

- email submitted before the Meeting at agm@wellard.com.au, or
- attending the Meeting via the webcast and asking questions by text message or audio through the webcast platform. Further instructions will be provided during the Meeting,

Shareholders will have a reasonable opportunity to ask questions live during the course of the meeting either online or in person and be able to comment on, and raise questions in response to, presentations, debate and other matters arising at the meeting. There will also be an opportunity for questions about, or comments on, the management of the company, the remuneration report (if relevant) and the auditor (as required by the Corporations Act).

Shareholders who wish to ask questions are strongly encouraged to submit their questions by email before the meeting. The Chairman will provide shareholders a reasonable opportunity to ask questions during the meeting and will advise shareholders when they can do so.

VOTING

All voting will be conducted by poll using either the proxy instructions received from Shareholders in advance of the Meeting, or an online poll form issued during the Meeting (Poll Form).

Shareholders voting by proxy should follow the instructions set out in this Notice, complete the proxy form included with this Notice, and return completed Proxy Forms to the Company no later than 2.00pm (WST) on 24 November 2021.

Shareholders who intend to vote during the Meeting must first pre-register to attend the meeting via webcast, in accordance with the above webcast registration. You will need to register at least 24 hours prior to the meeting.

- During the registration you can advise that you intend to vote during the meeting. You can also advise of your intention to vote at the meeting by emailing agm@wellard.com.au after you have registered for the webcast. You will receive confirmation emails acknowledging your registration and your intention to vote at the meeting.
- Shareholders that have advised of their intention to vote will have their shareholdings verified by the Company and the Share Registry. Verified shareholders will receive a Poll Form via email at the start of the Meeting. The Chairman will provide further instructions on when to complete and submit Poll Forms online.
- Shareholders will receive an email acknowledging the receipt of their vote.
- Only shareholders that have registered for the Meeting webcast at least 24 hours prior to the start of the Meeting, have advised (and received acknowledgement by the Company) of their intention to vote at the Meeting, and have had their shareholdings verified, will be able to cast votes during the Meeting.

If you have any queries regarding the voting process, please send them to agm@wellard.com.au

TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES

Technical difficulties may arise during the course of the AGM. The Chairman has discretion as to whether and how the AGM should proceed in the event that a technical difficulty arises. In exercising this discretion, the Chairman will have regard to the number of shareholders impacted and the extent to which participation in the business of the AGM is affected. Where the Chairman considers it appropriate, the Chairman may continue to hold the AGM and transact business, including conducting a poll and voting in accordance with valid proxy instructions.

For this reason, shareholders are encouraged to submit their voting instructions via <https://www.linkmarketservices.com.au> before the AGM, even if they plan to attend the meeting online. Voting instructions in the lead up to the AGM, whether submitted online or in hard copy, must be received by Link Market Services by 2:00pm (Perth time) on Wednesday 24 November 2021 (refer to the instructions on the Proxy Form).

ELECTRONIC NOTICE OF MEETING

This notice of meeting is provided to shareholders electronically, under s. 249J(3)(c) and s. 253R(a)(ii) of the Treasury Laws Amendment (2021 Measures No. 1) Act. Only Wellard Limited shareholders who have previously elected to receive documents in hard copy will receive this Notice of Meeting by post.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Dear Shareholder,

The Annual General Meeting (AGM) of shareholders of Wellard Limited (Wellard or Company) will be held as a virtual meeting on Friday, 26 November 2021 at 2.00pm (Perth time). The Notice of AGM follows this letter, and, if it is your selected preference, a hard copy Proxy Form will be provided to you.

Please note that you will receive this Notice of Meeting electronically, and unless you have requested a hard copy Proxy Form, you will be e-mailed a link to online voting.

As the COVID-19 epidemic continues to effect places where our shareholders are located, we have again made the decision not to hold a physical AGM this year. Instead, we strongly encourage shareholders to participate the AGM in the manner outlined below.

We will provide shareholders with the ability to participate at the AGM via a live webcast. This facility will allow shareholders to register their attendance, hear and view the meeting proceedings and slides presented during the meeting, and vote and ask questions.

Shareholders must pre-register on-line to access the webcast at:

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/269339488808113615>

Shareholders will be able to vote on resolutions during the meeting using an online voting platform, but we encourage you to cast your vote by proxy prior to the meeting. Shareholders will also be able to ask questions during the meeting, but again are encouraged to submit any questions to the Company prior to the AGM (in accordance with the instructions set out on page 9 of the attached Explanatory Memorandum). The Chairman will address at the Meeting as many as possible of the more frequently asked of these questions.

Under recently extended Australian Government regulations, it remains possible to hold a wholly virtual AGM. Wellard's Board has decided that holding a virtual meeting, rather than physical or hybrid, remains the most appropriate course of action for the Company, its shareholders and other stakeholders at this time.

Our experience in 2020 was that the virtual AGM allowed for a wider participation in our AGM by shareholders who were in locations outside of Western Australia, and there was strong and positive feedback.

The Board takes seriously ASIC's guidelines regarding the ability of shareholders to participate in meetings. In this regard, we have established a process for you attend via the live webcast, submit questions and to have them answered during the Meeting, and cast votes prior to and during the meeting.

The Company strongly encourages all Shareholders to participate in the Meeting by:

- a) reading the Notice of Meeting carefully;
- b) attending the Meeting via webcast,
- c) submitting any questions via email prior to the Meeting, in accordance with the instructions in the Notice,
- d) voting by proxy following the instructions set out in this Notice and return your completed Proxy Form to the Company no later than 2.00pm (WST) on 24 November 2021.

Further details on how to participate at this year's AGM are provided in the "Measures to deal with COVID-19 and impact on the Meeting" information attached to this letter and NOM. Please also refer at any time to our website for documents and details relating to our AGM: <http://www.wellard.com.au/investor-centre/annual-general-meeting-reports/>

Thank you for your support of our endeavours to be both inclusive and to prioritise the health and safety of our people.

This special resolution to amend the Constitution is proposed to ensure that the Company can convene a general meeting to be held at two or more places, or entirely virtually, using technology as permitted by the Corporations Act.

A copy of the current Constitution showing the proposed amendments is available at: <http://www.wellard.com.au/corporate/corporate-governance/>. An electronic copy of the Constitution showing the proposed amendments can be obtained by emailing: companysecretary@wellard.com.au. The principal amendments are set out in Schedule 3 to this Notice of Meeting.

8.2 BACKGROUND TO RESOLUTION 3

Wellard's current Constitution already contemplates that any general meeting may be held "in two or more places" and states that if a general meeting is held in two or more places, the Company must use technology that gives members a reasonable opportunity to participate at that general meeting" [Rule 7.4(a)].

Further, the current Constitution specifies that "Annual general meetings must be held in accordance with the Corporations Act" [Rule 7.1]. Accordingly, as the Corporations Act changes, so does the interpretation of this Article.

Some of the procedural details regarding hybrid or virtual meetings, however, are not fully specified.

Section 249S of the Corporations Act expressly allows a company to hold a general meeting at two or more venues using any technology that gives shareholders as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting.

During the current COVID-19 pandemic the Company has taken advantage of various measures (e.g. Corporations (Coronavirus Economic Response) Determination (No. 1) 2020 and ASIC's no-action position as set out in its 21-061MR of 29 March 2021) to hold a general meeting virtually using technologies. These measures were extended by the Australian Parliament on 10 August 2021, and now last until 31 March 2021.

The Australian Federal Treasurer has announced the intention of introducing permanent reforms to give companies the flexibility to use technology to hold meetings, such as hybrid meetings, and to sign and send documents.

The proposed amendments to the Wellard Constitution will enable the Company to hold meetings using technology, either physical, hybrid or virtual, consistent with Section 249S of the Corporations Act after the current temporary measures lapse, and in anticipation of the changes being made permanent.

The proposed amendments to Wellard's Constitution will:

- (a) clarify the Company's ability to hold a general meeting at two or more places using technology, or wholly using technology, which give the shareholders as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate in general meetings;
- (b) require that if a general meeting is to be held at two or more places or wholly using technology, requiring that the relevant notice of meeting includes details of the technology that will be used to facilitate the holding of the general meeting;
- (c) deem shareholders and where relevant, their proxies, attorneys and representatives, to be present at a general meeting which is held at two or more places or entirely virtually, where such shareholder or their proxy, attorney or representative participates in the general meeting using technology provided for in the relevant notice of meeting;
- (d) clarify how a quorum is to be constituted for a virtual general meeting;

- (e) clarify how to deal with technical difficulties which may impact on the ability of shareholders as a whole to have a reasonable opportunity to participate in the general meeting; and
- (e) confirm that a shareholder may appoint a proxy to attend a general meeting in any manner authorised by the Corporations Act and the Listing rules, including by using technology where provided in the relevant notice of meeting.

8.3 SCHEDULE 3 SETS OUT THE PRINCIPAL AMENDMENTS

The proposed amendments are set out in Schedule 3 to this Notice of Meeting. A full version of Wellard's Constitution, showing the amendments as a markup, can be seen on the Company's website at: <http://www.wellard.com.au/corporate/corporate-governance/>

8.4 PROXIES AND DIRECTORS' RECOMMENDATION

The Board considers the proposed amendments to be in the best interests of Shareholders as the amendments will clarify procedural rules and details which support the Company's ability to hold meetings online where this would be beneficial and in the interests of shareholders.

The Board notes that virtual or hybrid meetings allow a larger number of shareholders to participate in its general meetings, including its Annual General meeting, and so increases transparency and inclusivity.

While the Company is holding its 2021 annual general meeting virtually due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the Company has no current intention to move permanently to holding its general meetings virtually. The Board will assess each meeting's agenda and matters for discussion on their merits and determine the nature of the meeting in accordance with good governance and practical considerations at the time.

The Directors recommend that shareholders vote IN FAVOUR OF this resolution.

The Chairman of the meeting intends to vote undirected proxies IN FAVOUR OF this resolution.

9. RESOLUTION 4: - RENEW PROPORTIONAL TAKEOVER PROVISIONS IN WELLARD'S CONSTITUTION

9.1 SUMMARY

Resolution 4 is a special resolution that seeks Shareholder approval for the refreshing of the existing process for dealing with possible proportional takeovers of Wellard Limited. For a special resolution to pass, at least 75% of the votes cast must be in favour.

9.2 WHY WELLARD'S CONSTITUTIONAL POWERS NEED TO BE REFRESHED

The Corporations Act defines a proportional takeover bid as an off-market bid for a specified proportion of securities. That is, it is a takeover bid where an offer is made to each shareholder of a company to acquire a specified proportion only of that shareholder's shares (that is, less than 100%). The specified proportion must be the same in the case of all shareholders.

Section 648G(1) of the Corporations Act sets out that if a company's constitution contains proportional takeover provisions, the provisions cease to apply at the end of three years, unless the company's constitution provides for a shorter period. Section 648G(4) of the Corporations Act allows that a company may renew its proportional takeover provisions by way of a special resolution of its shareholders in general meeting.

On 12 November 2015, Wellard's shareholders approved amendments to its original Constitution (Constitution), including Rule 5, which contains provisions relating to proportional takeovers. In accordance with Rule 5.4 of the Constitution, those proportional takeover provisions in Rule 5 ceased to have effect on after three years. They were not put to Wellard Shareholders for renewal.

Not having been renewed on or before 13 November 2018, the proportional takeover rules in Wellard's Constitution have lapsed, and it is now proposed to renew them for 3 years, commencing on the date of Wellard's 2021 AGM.

The purpose of this item is to seek Shareholder approval to renew the provisions of Rule 5 of the Constitution, as shown in Schedule 2, for three years from the date of approval of the proposed resolution.

A copy of the Constitution is available on Wellard's website at: <http://www.wellard.com.au/corporate/corporate-governance/>

Pursuant to section 648G(5) of the Corporations Act, further information, including some potential advantages and disadvantages are detailed below.

What is a proportional takeover bid?	In a proportional takeover bid, a bidder offers to buy only a proportion (not 100%) of each shareholder's shares in the target company. A proportional takeover bid means that control of a company may pass without shareholders having the chance to sell all of their shares. In addition, this means the bidder may take control of a company without paying an adequate amount for gaining control. The Corporations Act allows a company to provide in its constitution that if a proportional takeover bid is made, shareholders must vote by way of an ordinary resolution on whether to accept the proportional takeover bid. That is, it is up to shareholders to decide collectively whether a proportional takeover bid is acceptable in principle, or not. The majority decision of shareholders present and voting, on whether to accept the proportional takeover bid, will be binding on all shareholders.
The effect of the proportional takeover provisions	The effect of the proportional takeover provisions is that if a proportional takeover bid is made for Wellard, Wellard must refuse to register a transfer of Wellard shares giving effect to any acceptance of the bid unless the takeover bid is approved by shareholders in a general meeting. If a proportional takeover bid is made, the Directors must convene a meeting of shareholders to vote on a resolution to approve the proportional takeover bid. For the resolution to be approved, it must be passed by a simple majority of votes at the meeting, excluding votes of the bidder and its associates. If no such resolution is voted on at least 14 days before the last day of the takeover bid period, the resolution will be deemed to have been approved. This effectively means that shareholders may only prohibit a proportional takeover bid by passing a resolution rejecting the proportional takeover bid. If a proportional takeover bid is approved by shareholders, a transfer of Wellard shares under the proportional takeover bid may be registered provided it complies with the other provisions of the Corporations Act and the Constitution. If a proportional takeover bid is rejected, the registration of any transfer of shares resulting from the proportional takeover bid is prohibited and the proportional takeover bid is deemed by the Corporations Act to have been withdrawn. Where a constitution contains proportional takeover provisions, Directors will breach the Corporations Act if they fail to ensure a proportional takeover bid resolution is voted on. The proportional takeover provisions do not apply to full takeover bids.
Reasons for proposing to renew the proportional takeover provisions	Without the proportional takeover provisions, a proportional takeover bid may result in control of Wellard passing without shareholders having the opportunity to dispose of all of their Wellard shares to the bidder. This could result in control of Wellard passing to the bidder without the payment of an adequate control premium and with shareholders left as a minority interest in Wellard. The proportional takeover provisions lessen this risk because they allow shareholders to decide whether a proportional takeover bid is acceptable and should be permitted to proceed.
Confirmation of no present acquisition proposals	As at the date of this Notice of Meeting, the Directors are not aware of a proposal by a person to acquire, or to increase the extent of, a substantial interest in Wellard.

Reflection on current period advantages and disadvantages	The Corporations Act requires Wellard to review the advantages and disadvantages of the proportional takeover provisions proposed to be renewed as it relates to the period in which the provisions have been in effect. As there were no proportional takeover bids for Wellard while the provisions were in operation, nor at any time since, there are no actual examples on which to assess the advantages or disadvantages of the proportional takeover provisions for the Directors and Shareholders of Wellard.
Potential advantages and disadvantages	The Corporations Act requires Wellard to discuss the potential advantages and disadvantages of the proportional takeover provisions proposed to be renewed. Some of the potential advantages and disadvantages of the renewal of proportional takeover provisions are set out below.
	Some potential advantages: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ they give Shareholders a say in determining whether a proportional takeover bid should proceed; ▪ they may discourage the making of a proportional takeover bid which may be considered opportunistic and may prevent control passing without the payment of an appropriate control premium; ▪ they may assist Shareholders in not being locked in as a minority interest; ▪ they increase Shareholders' bargaining power and may assist in ensuring that any proportional takeover bid is adequately priced; and ▪ knowing the view of the majority of Shareholders may assist each individual shareholder in assessing the likely outcome of the proportional takeover bid and whether to approve or reject that bid.
	Some potential disadvantages: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ may discourage the making of proportional takeover bids and may reduce any speculative element in the market price of a company's shares arising from the possibility of a takeover bid being made; ▪ may depress the share price or deny shareholders an opportunity of selling some of their shares at a premium; ▪ may reduce the likelihood of a proportional takeover bid being successful due to the delay, cost and uncertainty in convening a general meeting of Shareholders; and ▪ may be considered to constitute an unwarranted restriction on the ability of shareholders to deal freely with their shares

9.3 PROXIES AND DIRECTORS' RECOMMENDATION

The Board considers that the potential advantages to Shareholders of renewing the proportional takeover provisions in the Constitution outweigh the potential disadvantages and therefore unanimously recommends that Shareholders vote IN FAVOUR OF this resolution.

The Chairman of the meeting intends to vote undirected proxies IN FAVOUR OF this resolution.
